Land at Kenneth Avenue & East Lane

Stainforth, , DN7 5DT

Guide Price £275,000

Description

Vacant land measuring 1.38 acres with expired planning consent for 21 houses.

The land may have potential for alternative uses, such as commercial development, Storage, Builders Yard & more subject to obtaining the necessary planning consent.

Location

Situated approximately 7 miles northeast of Doncaster city center, this parcel of land positioned between Kenneth Avenue and East Lane in Stainforth benefitting from excellent regional connectivity and immediate access to localized amenities. The location sits within a mile of Hatfield & Stainforth railway station, which provides direct rail services toward Doncaster, Hull, and Scunthorpe, supplemented by several local bus routes running along East Lane and Silver Street. Everyday retail and healthcare amenities are situated nearby within the town, including an Asda supermarket and a local GP surgery, alongside the major, evolving Unity Regeneration Project footprint to the south and east which provides extensive commercial infrastructure and direct link-road access to the M18 motorway. The immediate surrounding property mix is prominently residential, characterized by a blend of established semi-detached houses, modern detached family homes, and multi-property cul-de-sacs, juxtaposed with adjacent open infill land and local community facilities.
