Description

1.41 Acres of vacant land / woodland.

The land may have potential for alternative uses subject to obtaining the necessary planning consents.

We understand that there is an area of Japanese Knotweed on the land, Buyers shall make their own enquiries regarding the extent and impact.

Location

The land is located on the outskirts of the rural village of Woore and is surrounded by open countywide and pockets of residential property. The village centre is located 1.5 miles away from the subject land and features a range of pubs & eateries including the Falcon Inn & Chetwode Arms. Woore is serviced by the 446 bus route, which offers regular services to the neighbouring villages of Madeley and loggerheads, with routes onwards to the surrounding region.
