Middleport, ST6 3NT

Guide Price £125,000

Description

A canal-side grade II listed former Calcining Works with previous planning permission for part demolition, conversion & new build of 18 residential units & a heritage centre.

The property may have potential uses subject to obtaining the necessary planning consents.

24 Acres of lands immediately opposite the subject property, running parallel to the Trent & Mersey canal has been allocated for the residential development of circa 350 homes as part of the draft local plan (September 2025). See plan attached.

Location

The property is located on Milvale Street, Middleport, a historically rich, canal-side lane situated within the heart of the Potteries, characterised by a diverse property mix that includes traditional Victorian terraced housing, light industrial commercial units. The location provides excellent access to nearby everyday amenities, with local convenience stores, food outlets, and the Wayne Walker Quality Meats supermarket within half a mile, alongside cultural landmarks such as Middleport Pottery and its canal-side café. Strategic road connectivity is served by the nearby A500 ("D-Road"), which connects residents directly to the M6 motorway and adjacent Staffordshire towns. Rail commuters benefit from exceptional proximity to Longport railway station, located less than half a mile away, which provides direct, short-journey connections to the regional hub at Stoke-on-Trent railway station and broader services toward Manchester and Crewe.
