19 Birch Terrace

Hanley, , ST1 3JN

Guide Price £140,000

Description

A former Jewish Synagogue located in Hanley city centre that measures approximately 230 sq.m. The vendor has commissioned indicative drawings outlining the properties potential for conversion to 10 apartments.

The property features extended land to the rear which has the potential for off road parking.

The property may suit a range of alternative uses, commercial or residential development (subject to planning). it is important that all interested parties rely on their own due diligence on this matter.

Location

The property is located on the eastern edge of Hanley city centre. The surrounding property mix is highly diverse and undergoing urban regeneration, blending period ground-floor offices, traditional red-brick terraced housing, and modern multi-bedroom house shares targeted at professionals and students. Its central location provides immediate proximity to city centre amenities, putting national retailers, restaurants, bars, and leisure venues just a short walk away. For travel and road connectivity, the property benefits from being a stone's throw from the Hanley City Centre Bus Station for extensive local public transport, while motorists have quick access to the vital A500 D-road, linking the site directly to the wider Stoke-on-Trent area and the M6 motorway network.

Planning & Supporting Information.

We are not aware of any current or historic planning consents in relation to this site, however there may be potential for alternative uses subject to the necessary planning permission and consents.

The vendor has commissioned indicative drawings showing the properties potential for conversion to form 10 apartments - full details in the accommodation paragraph.

NB: Whilst BJB will try and supply as much information as we can about the planning status of the land / property, please be mindful that we are not planning consultants and accordingly it is important that prospective purchasers ensure they have inspected the land / property and rely upon their own enquiries, assessments and due diligence with regards to the planning status and current or potential uses. All information is supplied in good faith and BJB cannot be held liable for any errors or omissions.
