36 Crabbery Street, Stafford, ST16 3BA

Description

A ground and first floor Grade II Listed property of stone construction under a pitched tiled roof. The premises occupy a prominent position close to the Market Square and public car parks. The property has been used as a bar/club for a number of years, most recently as a late-night music venue called Red Rum. As you enter the property you walk into an open plan gathering/seating area off which is a doorway leading through to a bar with additional seating and a bar serverly at the end. Behind the bar area is a kitchen and cellar. The first floor consists of two rooms, one having a bar. Male and Female WCs are located near to the main staircase along with a store room.

Location

The property is located within the central northern area of Stafford Town Centre on Crabbery Street in an area where redevelopment is taking place. Crabbery Street links Greengate Street to Chapel Street. The nearest car park is situated on Broad Street immediately adjacent to the former Wilkinsons home store. Nearby shops include a range of independent operators including Cash Converters, Home Bargains, Betfred and Boots.
