This property is not just a sound investment; it is a chance to own a piece of a thriving neighbourhood. With the potential for growth in both the commercial and residential sectors.

Description

The property is of traditional brick construction under a pitched slate roof. The front of the property has been altered/extended to provide a full height metal display window, metal pedestrian door access and this is rendered under a lean-to sloping tiled roof. The area directly in front of the property is parking for two cars with dropped kerb access leading to a drive and single garage to the rear.

To the side of the property, there is a gated external wooden staircase leading to the first floor flat. The staircase has been enclosed within a brick extension with pitched tiled roof. There is also gated access to the rear of the property where there is a 1.5 storey extension of brick construction under a pitched tiled roof. There are two further single storey extensions to the side of the property of brick construction under lean-to sloping tiled roofs, and also a single storey extension to the rear of brick construction under a lean-to sloping tiled roof.

Internally on the ground floor, the unit is fitted out as a hairdressing salon and the pedestrian door provides access to the main salon area with a large metal display window which is double glazed. The salon has a tiled floor, painted walls and a suspended ceiling. A door at the rear of the salon leads into a lobby area with kitchen, male/female toilets and a door out to the rear of the property. These have tiled floors, painted walls and ceilings. Enclosed wooden stairs lead to the front door of the first floor flat which opens into a small hallway. From here, there is access into the lounge with kitchen off and a bedroom with steps down into a bathroom with bath (shower off taps), sink and toilet. The bathroom also serves as a utility room. The flat has mainly carpet floor covering, painted/papered walls and painted ceilings.
