Former Electrical Sub Station Harewood Street

Tunstall, Stoke-on-Trent, ST6 5AQ

Description

Former Electric Sub Station and Land on the outskirts of Tunstall in Stoke on Trent. The property comprises a single storey building of solid brick construction under a flat concrete beam roof with entrance door to the front and further access points throughout the property. Given its past use the property has internal ducting within the floor making it more straightforward to install services, whilst the internal walls provide a natural division for those looking to separate the unit. Externally there is a fenced yard/car park with two gated points of entry. The Land is ideal for open storage use, car sales or may suit alternative uses/redevelopment (STPP).

Location

The property is located on the corner of Harewood Street and Watergate Street on the outskirts of Tunstall and opposite St Marys C of E Primary School. Situated within a predominantly commercial area with nearby business including Rafferty's and Johnson Tiles Factory Shop.
