We are delighted to present this beautifully extended and fully renovated two-bedroom semi-detached bungalow, ideally located in the highly sought-after suburb of Sprowston. The property offers light and versatile accommodation throughout, including a welcoming entrance porch and hallway, two well-proportioned bedrooms, a spacious lounge, a separate dining room, a newly fitted modern kitchen, a contemporary bathroom, a useful utility room and a bright conservatory overlooking the rear garden.

Outside, a generous driveway provides ample off-road parking and leads to a single garage complete with power and lighting. The private, low-maintenance rear garden is attractively paved and fully enclosed. The front garden is well presented, mainly laid to shingle with mature shrub borders, adding to the property's kerb appeal.

Finished to an excellent standard throughout, this impressive home benefits from electric heating and stylish, modern décor, making it ready to move straight into. Situated in a popular residential area close to local amenities, public transport and easy access to Norwich city centre, this property represents an ideal opportunity for those seeking a turn-key property within easy reach of Norwich.
