Sold with no onward chain, this attractive Victorian end-terrace home occupies an elevated position on the ever-popular Thorpe Hamlet region, within walking distance of Norwich City Centre. Approached via steps set behind mature hedging, the property enjoys an enclosed shingled front garden that provides privacy.

The accommodation begins with a welcoming sitting room featuring an electric fireplace. From here, steps lead up to the dining room, with French doors that open directly onto the garden, allowing for plenty of natural light. The modern fitted kitchen is positioned off the dining room. From the dining room, steps rise to the first floor where two double bedrooms are arranged off the landing and the bathroom is accessed via the rear bedroom.

Outside, the enclosed rear garden is of a particularly generous size for the area and has been designed for low maintenance with shingle, decking and a useful storage shed with power. The property further benefits from double glazing throughout and gas central heating.

These particulars, whilst believed to be accurate are set out as a general outline only for guidance and do not constitute any part of an offer or contract. Intending purchasers should not rely on them as statements of representation of fact, but must satisfy themselves by inspection or otherwise as to their accuracy. No person in this firm's employment has the authority to make or give any representation or warranty in respect of the property.
