A fantastic opportunity to acquire this period semi detached house, IN NEED OF COMPLETE MODERNISATION and ripe for creating a beautiful, spacious and characterful home.

The property retains many charming period features including cornicing, high ceilings, a feature fireplace in the living room, decorative tiling to the approach path and porch, and attractive exterior mouldings. There are also double glazed windows sympathetic to the era of the property and gas central heating. Of particular note is the long rear garden and shared driveway (approximately 2.2m wide) leading to parking, a garage and a carport.

The accommodation is currently arranged as follows:

Ground Floor: Entrance porch, entrance hall, living room, kitchen/dining room, separate breakfast room, and a further kitchen/utility. From the hallway, steps lead down to the basement.

Basement: Good head height with three storage rooms.

First Floor: Four bedrooms (three doubles and one single) together with a family bathroom.

There is also a space saving fixed ladder/staircase leading to a loft storage room (not compliant with current building regulations).

Stepping out into the rear garden, there is an external WC/storage, a semi detached garage, and a large covered carport. A gate leads into the main garden which, although requiring landscaping, gives the impression of being far removed from the bustling Gloucester Road and the railway cutting at the very rear. The garden features mature shrubs, bushes, trees and roses, along with a large ornamental fishpond, greenhouse, and garden sheds.

Cheltenham Spa Railway Station, located in Queens Road, serves as a key transport hub linking the town to major cities including London, Birmingham, Manchester, and Cardiff. Operated by Great Western Railway (GWR) and CrossCountry, it offers direct services along the Bristol–Birmingham Main Line and long-distance routes to destinations such as London Paddington, Bristol Temple Meads, Manchester Piccadilly, and Cardiff Central.

Just a short walk from the station, you'll find the recently refurbished Steam & Whistle—home to Dom Joly's Speakeasy—as well as the popular Deya Brewery and Tap Room, and a convenient Tesco Express.

Cheltenham's town centre, Montpellier, and The Promenade are all within a mile to a mile and a half, offering a vibrant mix of shopping and dining. Highlights include the High Street's John Lewis flagship store, the Regent Arcade, and a wide selection of boutiques, cafés, and restaurants—including six Michelin-starred establishments and the ever-popular Ivy.

Cheltenham is celebrated for its rich cultural calendar, hosting renowned events such as the Literature Festival, Jazz Festival, Science Festival, and Food & Drink Festival. Many of these take place in the historic Town Hall, the beautifully landscaped Montpellier Gardens, and the recently restored Everyman Theatre.

The town is also home to the prestigious Cheltenham Gold Cup Festival at Prestbury Park Racecourse. Adjacent to the racecourse is The Centaur, a versatile venue for live entertainment, including comedy shows, exhibitions, and recent events like the Snooker Finals.

For outdoor leisure, Pittville Park and the elegant Grade I Listed Pittville Pump Room are located just half a mile from both the town centre and the racecourse, offering scenic green space and cultural charm.
