Crewe

Crewe is a railway town and civil parish in the unitary authority of Cheshire East in Cheshire. Crewe is perhaps best known as a large railway junction and home to Crewe Works; for many years, it was a major railway engineering facility for manufacturing and overhauling locomotives, and also the home of Rolls-Royce motor car production. The Pym's Lane factory on the west of the town now exclusively produces Bentley motor cars. Middlewich is a market town and also has excellent transport links, which makes it the ideal place for commuters, the M6 is just a few miles from the town, Crewe train station is also within 20 minutes meaning you can be in London in a couple of hours!
