

Salt Way , Nr. Astwood Bank

Redditch, B96 6JT

Jeremy
McGinn & Co

Available at Offers In The Region Of £580,000

A beautifully presented, Character Barn conversion set in a semi-rural location off the Salt Way between Feckenham and Cookhill with grounds amounting to approx 0.3 acres with a natural brook crossing towards the rear. The property is on a small development of similar properties converted around 1997, in the grounds of Shurnock Court.

Internally the spacious accommodation is full of character features including exposed timbers throughout and some exposed brickwork. Approached over the gravelled courtyard, there is parking for up to four vehicles at the front of the property.

Enter into an impressive Reception hall with staircase rising to the Gallery landing and exposed ceiling trusses overhead. Downstairs; large bright Living room with feature bright built fireplace, one exposed brick wall and window to the front and french doors and window to the rear.

Open-plan Dining Kitchen with a modern fitted kitchen including a breakfast bar, quartz worktops and some appliances opening to a more formal dining area, window to front and rear with french doors to the garden. An internal door leads to the Utility room and a versatile Office/gym/snug. There is also a Downstairs WC.

Upstairs the Gallery landing has several fitted storage cupboards and leads to the Family Bathroom and the THREE BEDROOMS one with EN-SUITE.

The large and private Rear Garden is a particular feature of the property and is divided towards the rear by a small brook with bridge. A large paved patio stretches across the immediate rear with a raised water feature and leads onto the lawn.

There are many beautiful and well-tended shrubs, roses and small trees around the borders and a Summer house in one corner. Over the bridge, the garden is again lawned, edges onto open countryside and left in a more natural state. There is a gated, side passage for front access.
