Guide Price £275,000

A charming traditional end terrace cottage, set right in the heart of town, within a minutes stroll of numerous shops, cafés and restaurants in addition to the world famous Royal Shakespeare Theatre.

The cottage itself is in need of some modernising and updating and certainly offers tremendous scope, either as a private home or holiday let, due to it's close proximity to the town.

The internal accommodation briefly comprises; Sitting Room with feature fireplace, Separate Dining Room opening up on to a Kitchen, ground floor three-piece Bathroom and Two Double Bedrooms to the first floor.

There is a private garden to the rear; with patio area, artificial and real lawns and planted borders. We understand there to be a shared access alleyway to the side of the property; giving access from the front to the rear.

Parking for the property is available on road using a parking permit.

Tax Band: C

Council: Stratford District Council

Tenure: Freehold

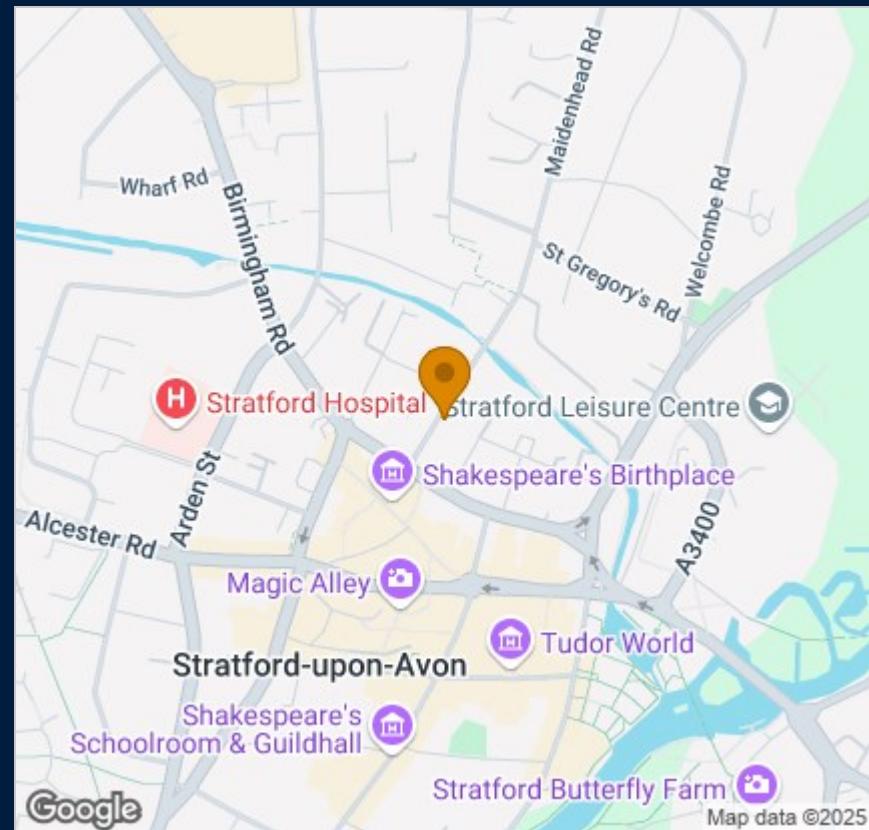

Stratford-Upon-Avon - Internationally famous as the birthplace of William Shakespeare and home to the Royal Shakespeare Theatre and attracts almost four million visitors a year. Stratford is also a prosperous riverside market town with fine restaurants and inns, a good choice of public and private schools and excellent sporting and recreational amenities. The town is ideally placed for access to the M40, other major road and rail networks, and Birmingham International Airport.
