Guide Price £325,000

Situated just a short walk from the heart of Stratford upon Avon, this spacious two-bedroom semi-detached home is presented in superb condition throughout and offers generous living accommodation, excellent off-road parking and a private walled rear garden.

The property is approached via a block paved driveway providing parking for multiple vehicles and opens into a welcoming and spacious entrance hallway. To the front of the property is a comfortable living room featuring a central log burner, creating a cosy focal point. This leads through to a substantial rear extension, currently utilised as a generous dining room and second reception space, opening up on to the rear garden, ideal for entertaining or family living.

The kitchen can be accessed from both the dining room and the entrance hall and is fitted with a range of wall and base units alongside integrated appliances.

To the first floor are two well-proportioned double bedrooms, with the principal bedroom benefitting from a dual aspect and particularly generous dimensions. Completing the accommodation is a modern shower room comprising a walk-in shower, WC and wash hand basin.

Externally, the delightful low-maintenance rear garden is enclosed by walling and features a patio seating area, artificial lawn, and wide side access leading to the front of the property.

Stratford upon Avon, nestled in the heart of Warwickshire, is a charming and historic market town best known as the birthplace of William Shakespeare. Set along the picturesque banks of the River Avon, the town beautifully combines rich heritage with a vibrant, contemporary lifestyle. Its streets are lined with well-preserved Tudor buildings, independent boutiques, cafés, and restaurants, while cultural highlights such as the renowned Royal Shakespeare Theatre draw visitors from around the world. The town is also particularly well regarded for its strong educational offering, with a range of highly rated primary and secondary schools, including the renowned King Edward VI School and Stratford Girls' Grammar School. In addition the town benefits from excellent transport links, with regular rail services to Birmingham and London, as well as easy access to the M40 motorway, connecting to the wider Midlands and beyond. This makes Stratford upon Avon an ideal location for commuters seeking a more relaxed, picturesque setting without compromising on connectivity.
