This unique period townhouse occupies a prominent position within the heart of Bedford's 'Castle Quarter' and is within a short stroll of Russell Park and the picturesque Embankment. Arranged over three floors, the accommodation has been improved and sympathetically updated by the present owner. Retaining a wealth of features, the rooms are light and airy and take full advantage of the property's predominantly south/westerly aspect. In brief, the accommodation provides four bedrooms (one en-suite), a sitting room, fitted kitchen/living room, cloakroom and family bathroom. The courtyard garden area is enclosed with a sunny aspect. There is also the rare benefit for the location of off road parking. Located on the doorstep of Castle Road, a range of independent coffee shops, delis, pubs and restaurants are close at hand. There is also an 'outstanding' rated primary school within a short walk.

The entrance door and hallway set the tone for the house from top to bottom. The stained glass, leaded light entrance door opens into the hallway which features an ornate mosaic tiled floor. The landing also has a large, stained glass picture window with a bright, west facing aspect. The principal rooms feature bay windows which bring much natural light into the living space. Outside, the courtyard garden extends around the front and side of the house and provides private, sunny sitting areas.
