This bay fronted period home lies very close to Russell Park and the delightful river walks on Bedford's picturesque Embankment. The property has been a cherished family home for six decades and now represents an ideal opportunity on which the new owner can put their own stamp. The side and rear elevations enjoy a sunny, south/westerly aspect which brings much natural light into the accommodation. The rear garden is predominantly west facing. The 'Castle Quarter' is extremely popular with individuals and families alike. There is an array of independent coffee shops and delis on the doorstep and a selection of pubs and restaurants within a short walk. The highly rated Castle Newnham primary school lies in the adjoining street.

EPC Rating: Council Tax Band: B

The property has been well maintained over the years but will now benefit from some cosmetic improvement. There is gas radiator heating with a new boiler just installed in January 2026. All of the windows are replaced with uPVC double glazed units. There is a shared, pedestrian access to the garden from the end of the terrace adjoining no. 6. The property is available with no onward chain.
