17 St. Andrews Road

Heald Green SK8 3ES

£750,000

Significantly extended, this remarkable detached residence offers spacious, versatile accommodation which is certain to impress.

An entrance porch opens to a wide hallway with a downstairs shower room/WC. On the right hand side of the house is a well-proportioned living room with feature wood-burning stove. The room leads on to a study, with doors to the garden. Central to the house is a fitted kitchen which opens on to a superb open-plan reception room of generous dimensions, again with doors to the rear garden.

To the first floor is a landing with storage and roof window. The substantial extension has provided an incredible room with feature vaulted ceiling and a Juliet balcony. This measures some 32 feet in length and is simply stunning - It offers flexibility of use and could be sub-divided, if desired.

To the right hand side of the house are four further bedrooms, all with built-in wardrobes/storage. They are served by a well-proportioned bathroom which is fitted with a white suite, with separate shower enclosure.

The property stands on a well-maintained garden plot, with a four car driveway leading to an integral garage. To the rear is an attractive garden with seating area and a lawned expanse.

The house forms part of a sought-after residential development of detached homes, well-placed for access to amenities, transport links and popular schools. An unmissable 'must-see' home!
