3 Merwood Avenue Heald Green SK8 3DN

£485,000

Significantly extended, this traditional semi-detached house stands on a generous garden plot, close to amenities, transport links and schools.

An entrance hallway leads to a dining room with bay window to the front. There is a living room with an inset feature fireplace. This room opens to a large conservatory with doors to the rear garden.

Central to the property is a morning room, which leads on to a fitted kitchen. There is internal access to the large integral garage: This space could potentially be suited to conversion into additional accommodation, subject to the necessary regulations being met. A downstairs WC provides additional convenience.

To the first floor is a split landing with access to the five bedrooms, family bathroom and a shower room, with large enclosure.

The property stands behind a garden area with an attractive Magnolia tree. A wide resin-bound driveway provides off road parking space. There is gated access alongside the house, leading to a large enclosed garden with paved seating area and a lawned expanse with mature planted borders.

This is a well-proportioned home which is certain to appeal to family purchasers in particular: An early viewing is recommended in order to appreciate the accommodation on offer.
