Nicholas
Humphreys

Asking Price £220,000

A well-presented mid-terraced home situated in the popular village of Overseal, offering spacious and versatile accommodation along with an extensive landscaped rear garden and double-width driveway providing off-road parking.

The property features a welcoming entrance hallway, front lounge with feature fireplace, and an open-plan dining kitchen with breakfast bar and access to the rear garden. To the first floor are two double bedrooms, a further single bedroom, and a modern refitted family bathroom. Further benefits include a gas-fired central heating boiler fitted in 2025, UPVC double glazing and a partially boarded loft space.

A particular feature is the generous rear garden with patio areas, decking, lawn, outbuildings and sheds. Conveniently located between Ashby-de-la-Zouch and Swadlincote with excellent access to the A42 and commuter routes.

The Accommodation

Occupying a desirable residential position within the ever-popular village of Overseal, this well-presented mid-terraced home offers versatile and spacious accommodation, complemented by an extensive landscaped rear garden and a double-width driveway providing off-road parking for two vehicles.

Set back from the road, a UPVC double-glazed front entrance door opens into a welcoming entrance hallway, with staircase rising to the first floor, single radiator and laminate flooring which continues through into the main lounge. Positioned on the front aspect, the lounge features a UPVC double-glazed window, double radiator and a feature fireplace with inset electric fire, creating a comfortable and cosy living space. A door then leads through to the open-plan dining kitchen.

The dining kitchen provides a wide selection of fitted base cupboards, drawers and matching eye-level wall units, together with a freestanding cooker space with electric point and extractor hood above. There is plumbing and appliance space for a washing machine, radiator, and a useful walk-in under-stairs storage cupboard. A breakfast bar alongside the dining area, offering ample space for a table and chairs. Double-glazed windows and a rear door provide natural light and access onto the enclosed rear garden.

To the first floor, the landing has a built-in cupboard housing the gas-fired central heating boiler, newly fitted in 2025. There is also access to a partially boarded loft space via a drop-down ladder, providing useful storage.

The master double bedroom is positioned on the front aspect, with laminate flooring, radiator and UPVC double-glazed window. A second generously proportioned double bedroom lies on the rear aspect, overlooking the extensive garden, with laminate flooring, UPVC double-glazed window and double radiator. The third bedroom, a single, is also positioned on the front aspect, with radiator and UPVC double-glazed window.

The modern refitted bathroom is fitted with a contemporary three-piece white suite comprising low-level WC, pedestal hand wash basin and panelled bath with electric shower over and glass screen. Finished with complementary wall tiling, a heated chrome towel rail and UPVC double-glazed window to the rear elevation.

A particular feature of this property is the extensive landscaped rear garden. Immediately to the rear of the house is a paved patio area, leading to two useful outbuildings, one of which has plumbing and potential for an external WC. Beyond this, the garden continues with a decked seating area, gravelled patio, shaped lawn, and a further decked area to the rear, along with additional garden sheds, all enclosed by fenced boundaries. There is also shared side access leading back to the front of the property.

The property is conveniently positioned between the market towns of Ashby-de-la-Zouch and Swadlincote, with Overseal offering a range of local amenities and schooling. It also benefits from excellent commuter links, being within easy reach of the A42 and major road networks.

Internal viewing is strictly by appointment only.
