Location

Located within the peaceful rural hamlet of Shebbear, this setting offers a quintessential Devon lifestyle surrounded by unspoilt countryside and rolling farmland. Shebbear itself is a charming and close-knit community, centred around its historic square and well-regarded village school, and is perhaps best known for its annual tradition of “turning the Devil’s Stone.” Despite its tranquil feel, the village is conveniently positioned for access to the nearby market towns of Holsworthy and Great Torrington, both providing a range of everyday amenities, shops, and services. The larger port town of Bideford and the town of Okehampton are also within easy reach, offering further facilities, schooling, and access to the A30 for connections across the region. The surrounding area is ideal for those who enjoy outdoor pursuits, with scenic walking, cycling, and riding routes, as well as easy access to the dramatic North Devon coastline and the open expanses of Dartmoor National Park. Combining rural charm with accessibility, Shebbear is an ideal location for those seeking a quieter pace of life without complete isolation.
