Buildings History

Ford House, affectionately known as 'The Zoo House', is a substantial period residence dating back to 1844. This cherished local landmark became home to Bideford Zoo in the mid-20th century before closing in the 1970s.

After years of dereliction, the building was thoughtfully restored and transformed into six stunning apartments by renowned local builder Grenco Limited in 2006, preserving its unique character and history.

First Floor

Entrance Hall

A communal entrance hall provides a warm welcome to the building, with stairs leading up to the apartments. The private entrance to Apartment 4 is located on the first floor.

Lounge

22'8" x 13'2"

The lounge is a bright and spacious room, enjoying a dual aspect and two large sash windows that flood the space with natural light. Generously proportioned, it offers ample room for both comfortable living and dining areas.

Kitchen

12'0" x 9'11"

The kitchen is fitted with matching wall and base units and includes a range of integrated appliances such as a fridge/freezer, oven with hob and extractor above, and a sink with drainer. There is also space for additional white goods. A large sash window allows plenty of natural light to fill the room, which also offers ample space for a dining table and chairs.

Bathroom

Recently fitted with a brand-new modern suite, the bathroom is fully tiled and features a contemporary bath with shower over, low-level WC, hand wash basin, and a heated towel rail.

Bedroom One

10'10" x 10'8"

A generously sized double bedroom benefiting from its own private en-suite.

Ensuite

6'4" x 4'1"

Fitted with a modern three-piece suite, including a walk-in shower cubicle, low-level WC, and a contemporary hand wash basin.

Bedroom Two

11'7" x 8'2"

A further well-proportioned double bedroom, offering versatility for guests, family, or additional workspace.

Outside

To the front of the property is a communal garden area —perfect for enjoying the sunshine. Apartment 4 benefits from ample allocated parking with space for multiple vehicles. A pathway leads directly to the main entrance of the building, providing convenient access.

Services

The property is held on a 999-year lease from 1st January 2010.

The ground rent is peppercorn (nil) or minimal.

Service charge: £720 per annum

Buildings insurance: £250 per annum

Directions

From our office, head South along the quay towards Torrington. Proceed straight over the 2 mini roundabouts and take the second right into Ford Rise. Continue up the hill taking the first left into Soloman Drive and the next left into Rowe Close. The property will then be found after a short distance on the right hand side.
