LOCATION

Nestled on the North Devon coast, Appledore is a picturesque fishing village brimming with charm and character. Its winding narrow streets are lined with colourful cottages, independent shops, and welcoming pubs, all leading down to the pretty quayside where you can watch boats drift along the estuary.

The village is well known for its strong sense of community and thriving arts scene, with regular galleries, craft shops, and events such as the annual Appledore Book Festival. For day-to-day amenities, you'll find local stores, cafés, and restaurants serving fresh seafood right on your doorstep.

Westward Ho! with its 2 miles of golden sandy blue flagged beach is just a 2-mile drive and is a favourite with surfers, families, and bathers alike. Protected by the unique natural feature of the pebble ridge, the Northam Burrows Country Park is a popular spot with walkers and cyclists and is also the home of England's Oldest Golf Club, the Royal North Devon. Barnstaple, the regional centre of North Devon, is approximately 10 miles away, reached via the North Devon link road, offers all the area's main shopping, business, commercial and leisure pursuits. Barnstaple's train station offers a link to the city of Exeter with connections to London and beyond.
