Description

Situated in a quiet gated development away from the main road and just a short walking of local village shops is this two bedroom house built in 2021, ideal as a downsize or first time buy. The property features a secluded rear courtyard garden and private off street parking.

As you walk through the front door you are welcomed into the open plan ground living/kitchen/dining room. The kitchen is centred by an island with granite work tops, built in appliances and a good amount of storage. There is also a downstairs loo/utility room and a rear door to access the courtyard garden.

On the first floor there are two bedrooms; with the principal bedroom benefiting from a range of built in wardrobes. The bedrooms are service by a modern family bathroom.

Outside there is allocated parking within the gated area and a secluded rear courtyard garden with space for garden furniture.
