Description

Occupying an elevated position in the sought-after Parkway area of Dorking (RH4), this attractive 1930s semi-detached family home beautifully combines period character with thoughtfully updated accommodation.

The welcoming entrance hall, featuring a beautiful tiled floor, sets the tone for the home. A separate reception room provides a comfortable space to relax, while the impressive rear extension has created a spacious open-plan kitchen/breakfast room, ideal for modern family living and entertaining. With direct access to the garden, this light-filled space enjoys delightful views towards Box Hill and the historic St Martin's Church.

The property offers three well-proportioned bedrooms, including two generous doubles with fitted wardrobes, providing excellent storage. A ground-floor wet room adds everyday practicality, complemented by a first-floor family bathroom fitted with a contemporary white suite.

Outside, the attractive rear garden is a wonderful place to enjoy the outdoors, with a raised patio perfectly positioned for al fresco dining and entertaining while taking in the surrounding views. To the rear of the garden, a detached single garage provides useful storage or workshop space, and the property also benefits from off-street parking for up to three vehicles.

This charming home successfully blends the elegance and character of the 1930s with the space and practicality expected by today's families. Situated in one of Dorking's most desirable residential locations, it presents an excellent opportunity to enjoy comfortable family living within easy reach of the town centre, excellent schools and beautiful Surrey countryside.
