Description

A generously proportioned family home built in 1999 with over 2100sqft of accommodation, located within a secluded cul-de-sac.

This attractive home is approached via gradual steps to the front door and into the entrance hall with toilet off. An impressive extended triple aspect kitchen/breakfast room has a large island and doors to garden. The island features a breakfast bar, a built in wine cooler, 5 burner hob with contemporary extractor over and storage cupboards. There are further wall and base units housing two ovens, a plate warmer, a fridge freezer and dishwasher with striking worktops over. A utility room with garden access complements this room. In addition there are two spacious reception rooms, one with a feature fireplace and direct access to a welcoming conservatory with garden access.

On the first floor, the spacious principal bedroom suite enjoys a luxurious en-suite shower room and fitted storage. Four further double bedrooms, three with fitted storage, are indulgently served by two family bathrooms, which provide scope to create a dressing room for the principal bedroom.

The low maintenance front and rear gardens are a particular feature of this home, offering much privacy and landscaped to create interest and seclusion. The generous rear patio is ideal for entertaining framed by mature shrubs and raised railway sleeper beds for an abundance of perennial planting. There is also a raised decked area and firewood store and a side gate to the front garden, featuring a neat lawn, a water sculpture, lighting and a detached double garage opposite with space in front to park.
