Description

This striking Edwardian cottage has been beautifully maintained and upgraded by the current owner to a high standard.

To the front is a bright, inviting living room with bay window, fireplace and stairs to the first-floor. The second reception room has built-in storage, a window overlooking the side garden and a door to the kitchen. The kitchen features a built-in; oven, induction hob and dishwasher, with spaces for; a fridge-freezer and washing machine. From there there is an orangery with patio doors to the garden and guest toilet.

Off the first-floor landing are two double bedrooms, each with built-in wardrobes and the family bathroom with both a freestanding bath and shower. The recently added 2nd floor has a double bedroom, with walk-in wardrobe and its own en-suite, featuring a w.c, wash hand basin and large shower.

Outside. The garden features a courtyard area, ideal for al-fresco dining in summer months leading to a landscaped rear garden with neat lawn, patio, side access and a shed. To the front is a low maintenance front garden leading to the side entrance.

Ample on street parking complements this property.

Situation

The property is located in one of Ashted's most sought after residential roads within the Lanes area and is within walking distance of Ashted's mainline station with services to London Waterloo, London Bridge and Victoria. There are also excellent local shopping facilities and bus routes nearby including Craddocks Parade and Barnett Wood Lane.

The area abounds in a wealth of open unspoilt countryside much of which is National Trust and Green Belt which in turn provides open spaces for country walks, horse riding and cycling.

Highly regarded local schools both state and private can be found within walking distance including Barnett Wood Infant School, Downsends, West Ashted Primary and St Andrew's.

A choice of recreational pursuits including Ashted Squash and Tennis club, the RAC club at Woodcote Park and Tyrrells Wood Golf Club are all within the vicinity.
