Old Court

Set within a Conservation Area, Old Court is an attractive period property located pretty much within the centre of a quiet residential road alongside unique character properties. The Old Street forms what was part of an old historic family estate and although there are no definitive records, it is believed that Old Court itself dates in part from the late 1700's.

The property has been remodelled several times reflecting the fact that 'The Barn' which now forms part of Old Court was in separate ownership until 2001. More recently, in 2012 Old Court was re-roofed and then 'The Barn' was re-roofed in 2023. Approached by an impressive gated courtyard with secure parking for numerous cars, Old Court offers versatile accommodation over two floors. Presently it is used as one large home, but it could easily be subdivided to be used as a connected annexe for independent living or if desired offer a potential letting opportunity - The Barn which is attractively clad in roses has separate services/utilities, a separate gated driveway entrance and garden.

Old Court itself has an impressive front door which leads into a spacious entrance hall from where Jacobean carved doors lead into a magnificent beamed sitting room and a second separate reception room. Set at the rear of the house with bi-fold doors is a large dining room which connects with the luxurious kitchen featuring extensive base and matching eye level cabinets with granite worktops and integrated appliances including a Lacanche range. In addition to a separate utility room is a large coat/boots room with garden access. The accommodation on the ground floor extends through to 'The Barn' where there are two further large reception rooms and a library hall with stairs to the first floor.

On the first floor, the bedroom accommodation is accessed via 3 separate staircases. Within Old Court there is a superb Principal Bedroom Suite comprising a separate dressing room and private bathroom together with a second ensuite bedroom. Accessed by a 2nd staircase within 'The Barn' are 3 more bedrooms (two of which are ensuite), whilst the 3rd staircase within Old Court leads to a beautiful beamed office/bedroom 6.

The delightful and attractively landscaped rear garden to Old Court is 'L-shaped' offering near complete privacy. The large adjoining terrace leads to the recently refurbished outdoor pool and fine lawns encompassing a magnificent Sequoia tree. There is gated access to the rear via Lower Road.
