THE PROPERTY

Positioned right in the heart of historic Winchcombe with superb independent shops, cafés, and eateries on the doorstep, this charming Cotswold stone period cottage effortlessly pairs rich character heritage with modern refinement. Arranged over three floors, the property offers a deceptively spacious layout extending to 826 square feet, making it an ideal town-centre residence or a quintessential country retreat.

The inviting sitting room boasts traditional flagstone flooring, exposed stonework, rustic ceiling beams, and a striking stone fireplace equipped with a cosy woodburner. This space flows seamlessly into a separate dining room featuring elegant oak flooring and a secondary stone fireplace. To the rear, the beautifully refitted kitchen is finished with solid wood worktops and integrated appliances, and a ground floor shower room completes the level.

The upper levels host three bedrooms. The first floor features two well-proportioned bedrooms, whilst a further staircase leads to the second floor, where a bright third bedroom has useful integrated eaves storage.

A door from the kitchen opens onto a wonderfully private, south-west facing rear garden that has been thoughtfully designed for low-maintenance town living. This outdoor space features a paved terrace and a timber summer house. Crucially, a rear pedestrian gate provides quick and easy access directly to the Back Lane car park, adding immense practical convenience to this prime town-centre home.
