Location

Law Cottage enjoys a superb position at the base of Blencathra, one of the most recognisable and dramatic fells in the northern Lake District, within the popular village of Threlkeld. Threlkeld is well known for its strong walking and outdoor pursuits community, with direct access to fell walks and the Old Coach Road, as well as being close to the Cumbria Way. The village itself offers local amenities including a pub and primary school, while the market town of Keswick is just a short drive away, providing a wider range of shops, restaurants, and the renowned Derwentwater. The property's setting offers the perfect balance of peaceful rural living with convenient access to the wider Lake District National Park.
