Outside

To the front, a large forecourt provides parking and turning space for several vehicles, with access to the integral double garage and workshop/store. A lawned garden with well-stocked flower and shrub borders sits to the side. To the rear is an enclosed, private garden laid to lawn with a raised flower bed, a stone-flagged terrace off the lounge diner's bifold doors, and a further terrace with a built-in barbecue.

Location

Great Strickland is a vibrant Eden Valley village just 6 miles from Penrith, surrounded by open countryside. The village has a church, village hall and public house, with primary schools nearby in Hackthorpe and Morland. Penrith offers full amenities including supermarkets, high street shops, a leisure centre, cinema, and excellent transport links via the M6, A66, A6 and West Coast mainline — and serves as a gateway to Ullswater and the North Lakes fells.

Services & Additional Information

Mains water, drainage and electricity are connected. Heating is via oil-fired central heating (Worcester boiler in the garage), supplemented by a multi-fuel stove in the lounge diner and an LPG stove in the games room. Windows are uPVC double glazed throughout.
