This spacious three double bedroom semi-detached bungalow offers the perfect blend of generous living space, versatility and exciting future potential — all set within a highly convenient location.

Already extended to the rear, the property now boasts a large kitchen and dining area, complemented by an additional bathroom and a separate utility room, making it suited to modern family living. A bright and airy through lounge provides plenty of space to relax or entertain, while all three bedrooms are comfortable doubles. A further shower room adds extra convenience.

For those looking to add even more value, the property offers excellent scope for a loft conversion (subject to planning permissions), giving buyers the opportunity to create additional living space.

Externally, the home continues to impress with a generous rear garden, featuring a large decking area leading onto a lawn, as well as a useful outbuilding positioned behind the garage. There is ample parking available both on the driveway and on-road, along with garage access via a shared drive.

Perfectly positioned between North Heath and Erith Town Centre, the property is within easy reach of shops, amenities and Erith railway station, as well as excellent bus routes right on your doorstep. Well-regarded schools are also within walking distance, making this an ideal family home.
