THE PROPERTY

Situated within the village of Longhoughton on the Northumberland coast, this superb three-bedroom semi-detached cottage occupies a generous sized plot that includes a gravelled and block paved hardstanding for multi vehicle parking, a double garage, summer house and large shed. Internally, there is a large living room extension as well as a rustic kitchen which features exposed beams, a bathroom and a large dining room/4th bedroom. Upstairs are three good sized bedrooms and a family shower room.

Longhoughton itself has a first school, church, the well-known 'Running Fox' artisan bakery and coffee shop, nursery, creche, Co-op, Airforce Education centre, Longhoughton Community Centre and sports field, children's play parks and a bus service to Alnwick. The village is located within walking distance to the beautiful 'Sugar Sands' beach and coastal walk. The nearby villages of Craster, Alnmouth and Embleton also offer a wide range of restaurants, bars and pubs, as well as the historic town of Alnwick offering a larger range of retail and leisure facilities.

Longhoughton is a fantastic location for proximity to good transport links whilst being able to experience rural living in a Northumberland coastal village.
