

LOCAL AMENITIES

Situated about ten miles north of Milton Keynes Stoke Bruerne is renowned as a top canal destination on the Grand Union Canal where it features the Canal Museum, the 1.75 mile Blisworth Tunnel and traditional pubs, The Navigation and The Boat Inn, scenic locks and the Stoke Bruerne Brick Pits Nature Reserve. Stoke Bruerne is situated near the A5 and A508 which provides good access to the M1, M40 and A43 and the train stations at Milton Keynes and Northampton provide services to London Euston. Close by is the market town of Towcester where you will find independent gift, fresh food and jewellery shops as well as a variety of restaurants and cafes.

HOW TO GET THERE

Form Northampton proceed in a southerly direction along the A508 London Road and onto the dual carriageway leading to junction 15 of the M1 motorway. Proceed straight over junction 15 signposted towards Roade and continue along the A508. At the roundabout junction outside of the village take the second exit onto the Roade bypass and proceed straight on at the next roundabout junction. Continue along the A508 signposted towards Stony Stratford and at the next cross roads turn right signposted to Stoke Bruerne. Proceed into the village along Rookery Lane and at the bottom of the hill where the road bears left the property stands on the right hand side between Chapel Lane and Mill Lane.
